

Developing Soft Skills and leadership qualities among NCC Cadets in College

A lecture on One day Soft Skill development and leadership quality was conducted by the Lt. Dr R. M. Agrawal ANO and SGBAU certified soft skill trainer at Shri RLT College of Science, Akola on date 27 July 2020. In these 52 cadets were present. In his lecture he taught the NCC cadet for the overall personality development qualities, time management, interview skills which will help the cadets in various exam related to Indian Army. He also focused on the topic like punctuality, Integrity, Honesty, etc. which improves self-awareness in the NCC cadets and also help in building up interpersonal relationship, positive attitude, improves communication skills, Time management, Leadership skills, Realization of importance of teamwork amongst the cadets. The training covers a wide spectrum ranging from soft skills to military activities also.

Principal